NEW ARRIVALS

Larisa and Michael welcomed 4 healthy Welsh terrier puppies in the middle of June. The sire is "Java" and the dam is "Ella". Ella is retired from the show ring after finishing her championship last year in Prince George with a couple of G1s and a RBIS and got a family of her own. Java is Canada's #1 Welsh terrier for 2013 and currently holds that position for 2014.

Bruce Fraser reports that Can/Am Ch. Advocate's Just Jack CDX has sired a litter of Min. Schnauzers, whelped June 23 by Bruce & Gary's "Kylie". Just Jack ("JJ") is also the BCATC Top Obedience Dog (see photo above), and #3 Obedience Terrier in Canada for 2013; he was also a group placer in the US with handler Cathy McMillan. Loved by Gary & Bruce; trained and conditioned by Bruce.

NEW CHAMPIONS & TITLEHOLDERS

Sheila Ehmann reports that her new Westie female, Windacre Not A Drive By, became a new Canadian Champion at the Nicola Valley Kennel Club show by going Best of Winners under Dr. Michael Woods. Breeder: Linda Carmichael; Owners: Sheila Ehmann and Linda Carmichael; Sire: Multi-Champion Whitebriar Jaw Dropper; Dam: Champion Windacre Soul Sister.

Mysticgold Kennel gained 2 new champions at the VIDFA show in May. Our young blue and tan Border Terrier puppy Rebel (Ch. Mysticgold's Lone Ranger) finished his championship from the Junior Puppy class after only 4 days of showing. He also won the Puppy Group on Sunday under Mrs. Margaret Jones. We also finished the championship on a young Westie bitch named Fiona (Ch. Mysticgold Fiona's Enchantment) a few days shy of her 1st birthday. She was BOB on Saturday and BW on Friday and Sunday.

We then travelled to attend the WHWT National Specialty Show on June 29th, which was held in conjunction with the Nicola Valley Kennel Club Show. We had a great weekend! At the National we won Best Bred By Exhibitor with Willow (Mysticgold's Dream Girl) and our Fiona (Ch. Mysticgold Fiona's Enchantment) won Best of Opposite Sex in Sweepstakes. On Tuesday, July 1st we won Best of Breed with Frankie (GCh. Mysticgold's Power Play) over a large entry of WHWTs.

Larisa Hotchin is proud to announce a new Canadian Champion – Trooper – now Am GCh. & Can Ch. Darwyn Here for a Good Time. Trooper, who is being shown in the Eastern US with Ernesto Lara, came to Canada briefly during May, presented by Peter Scott. He was entered 2 weekends but finished his championship on the first weekend at a show that was also hosting the Airedale Terrier National Specialty. Trooper finished his championship with a Group 1st win from the classes and multiple group placements.

Also this period is the very exciting news that Monty became a BRONZE level Grand Ch. in the US! Now Bronze GCh. & Can Ch. Darwyn Bruhil's Flying Circus ... there are only 8 Welsh terriers in the history of the GCh that have more GCh points than Monty and only 10 in total that have achieved this status.

SHOW WINS

At the Lakes District shows, May 3 & 4, John & Penny Rogers' Wheaten, Ch. Cashel's Oban On Ice, won the terrier group under Richard Lopaschuk, Ainslie Mills, Don Emslie and Tim Doxtater, including Reserve BIS under Doxtater.

Erin Moore reports that her Norwich, Ch. Castanewf's Paint The Town Red, aka Parker, as pictured with owner/handler Erin Moore, won Best of Breed for a 3-point major at the Tacoma Kennel Club on June 8, 2014. Judge Paula Hartinger later awarded Parker a 3rd in Group. With very limited showing, Parker now has 3 majors and 12 US points. Many, many thanks to breeders Denise Castonguay and Judy Knudsen for this amazing little dog!

At the Tye K.C. shows May 9-11, terriers were judged by Ricardo Saldana, Janet Buchanan, and Terry Carter. Kelly Greir's Border terrier, Mysticgold's Lone Ranger, went Group 2nd and Best Puppy under Saldana. Jackie Marriott's Scottie, Dunsmuir's Midnight Sorcerer, went Group 4th under Buchanan, and Kelly Greir's Westie, Mysticgold Fiona's Enchantment, took Best Puppy under Carter.

At the Vancouver Island Dog Fanciers' shows, May 23-25, Larisa Hotchin's Welsh, GCh. Darwyn's Special Blend, went Group 2nd under Sharon Derrick, who also placed John & Penny Rogers' Wheaten, Ch. Cashel's Oban On Ice, Group 4th. The Wheaten won the group the next day under Peter Machen, and Heather & David Lindberg's Scottie, Macbrechin's Evening Skye, co-owned with Kim & Mike Salkus, finished her Championship in style with a Group 3rd, with the Welsh, Darwyn's Secret Formula, taking Puppy Group. On Sunday, Margaret Jones gave Group 2nd to the Wheaten, and Best Puppy to Kelly Greir's Border terrier, Mysticgold's Lone Ranger. Barry Truax brought out a 6-month old Scottie puppy, Glenfraser's Blackwatch Piper, and he went Best of Breed for his first point under Jones.

The Island shows continued at Comox, June 7-10, where Michelle Scott gave Group 4th to the Scottie, Macbrechin's Evening Skye. Then at Nanaimo K.C. June 12-15, Robert Rowbotham gave Group 2nd to John & Penny Rogers' Wheaten, Ch. Cashel's Oban On Ice, and Group 4th to Larisa Hotchin's Welsh, GCh. Darwyn's Special Blend. The Welsh also took Group 2nd under Jack Ireland who placed the Scottie, Macbrechin's Evening Skye, Group 4th. Mike Macbeth and Grant Townsend both placed the Welsh Group 3rd, and the Welsh puppy, Darwyn's Secret Formula, took Puppy Group all four days.

The Nicola Valley K.C. shows June 28 - July 1 drew an impressive entry this year, and unlike last year, the terrier entry reached over 35 dogs, boosted by the large entry for the Westie National Specialty. Several of Canada's top dogs this year were also in attendance making the Best in Show lineup quite impressive. The first day, Lee Anne Bateman gave Group 3rd and Best Puppy to Larisa Hotchin's Welsh, Darwyn's Secret Formula, and later took her on to Best Puppy in Show (see photo below). The next day, Dr. Michael Woods placed the Welsh Group 4th and Best Puppy. Tim Doxtater gave the group to John & Penny Rogers' Wheaten, Ch. Cashel's Oban On Ice, with Anita Norman's new Kerry female, Melbee's Tango Nuevo, going Group 4th. The last day, Don Emslie also gave the group to the Wheaten, plus Group 2nd to Debbie Miyashita's Border, Ch. Fernrigg's Foxtrot, and Group 3rd to the Kerry.

Darwyn Welsh Terriers has been actively showing 4 in the show rings, 2 being conditioned by handlers and 2 being conditioned by Larisa (with a few others being worked on at home!).

Monty with Doug (Am GCh. & Can Ch. Darwyn Bruhil's Flying Circus) has done well enough in his limited showing that he is currently the #3 Welsh Terrier in the US, including being awarded Best in Specialty at the Welsh Terrier Club of Northern Illinois! In addition, Monty spent one weekend in Canada and won the terrier Group 1st at all 4 shows he attended!

Trooper with Ernesto (Am GCh. & Can Ch. Darwyn Here for a Good Time) was shown in Canada for 2 weekends and placed in the group every time shown. In the US, Trooper has started to be shown again as of mid June with some very exciting wins! Trooper attended a series of shows in Virginia associated with the Virginia Terrier Specialty where 15 Welsh Terriers were entered (and most in attendance and a number of top ranked specials) – Trooper won BOB twice on that weekend and also got 2 group placements, including a Group 2nd behind the top Skye Terrier being shown, for almost 200 terrier points that day!

In the West, Larisa has been focussed mostly on showing her special “Java” (Can GCh. & Am Ch. Darwyn’s Special Blend) and a puppy Coca (Darwyn’s Secret Formula). Java continues to get group placements at many shows, including the one day he was shown at the Bell Vernon (US) shows by owner/breeder/handler to a Group 2nd! Coca has won many BPIG awards and the one weekend where she was alone at the show without Java there, she was awarded 2 group placements and a Best Puppy in Show (as pictured above)!!!! Coca is now 1 point away from her Championship and we think we will hold her off for a while now.

At the Vernon K.C. shows, July 4-6, Diane Ivey gave the terrier group to Joy Viel’s Irish, Ch. Red Branch D’Artagnan Of The Ring, and Group 3rd to the Welsh, Can GCh. & Am Ch. Darwyn’s Special Blend. On Saturday, Denise Cornelssen placed these two dogs Group 2nd and 4th respectively. On Sunday, Mary White placed the Welsh Group 2nd.

WESTMINSTER KENNEL CLUB

by Bruce Fraser

Westminster Kennel Club holds its annual all breed show in Manhattan, New York City, in February, the single show running always on a Monday/Tuesday. For many years the entire show was held at "the Garden" (Madison Square Gardens, which is actually round, like Rogers Arena, in Vancouver).

In 2013, the WKC split the show location, partly due to renovations which resulted in limited space for benching at the Garden: breeds are judged daytime at "the Piers", two large warehouse buildings on the river bank, and groups nighttime at the Garden. Monday evening is 4 groups, Tuesday holds the remainder of the groups and Best in Show. Once renovations are complete the entire show may return to MSG.

In 2014 there were over 2800 dogs entered. For some years the entries were restricted to AKC Champions of record only, but the show was opened up to class competition at the Piers, partly to allow quality foreign dogs to compete without first undertaking a show campaign in the USA. Westminster would not be the show to choose to get class points, as the class competition is not well supported, in part no doubt due to the cost.

An entry is $100. Then there are the costs of transportation and accommodation - not cheap - this is New York City. It is difficult to find a hotel in Manhattan that accepts dogs. Those that do typically charge additional for dogs of between $25 per night to $150 for a stay. The two main dog hotels are the Hotel Pennsylvania and the New Yorker (where we stayed at $250/night plus a mandatory $100 pet fee for the stay). Both hotels had a dedicated indoor potty area, which was useful, since the temperatures were well below freezing and the outdoor choices are pavement or ice/snow/slush.

WKC provides a free shuttle for people, dogs, crates and grooming equipment from both hotels, which service worked quite well.

The show is one of the few remaining benched shows. That means that on the day you show, your dog has an assigned space that it must occupy from 11:00 am to 6:00 pm, except when it is showing or away for a brief potty break. This is so the public can view their favourite breed and talk to the fanciers. Indeed many people do attend for that purpose. The benching spots are in three assigned sizes (you have no choice) the smallest, as was ours, being ridiculously tiny. There is no room for each person to have a grooming table and it becomes necessary to spread out for that purpose, which we did.

There are several large rings in Pier 94 (the main warehouse) along with large benches and a few booths and vendors. There are 4 small rings in Pier 92 (the upstairs warehouse), which is where all terrier breeds were judged. The breed rings start as early as 8:30, but the groomed breeds were later. All terrier breed judging was complete by 2:30, so then it's a game of sit and wait to be released. You cannot get out with your dog unless you win the breed (then it's 3:00 pm so you can get over to the Garden for group judging) until at least 4:30, which early excusal, was announced to us at about 4:00 pm. Everyone was ready to go and there was quite a queue to get out.

The evenings were well done in the Garden arena. However, every entry gets only one free ticket (ours went to our handler). A general admission event pass is $130 for the two days. You can pay more for assigned seats, box seats etc. if you want to be close to the ring. We were happy with our seats high up where we could see the ring and have a very good view of the huge screen monitor.

You can see many of the top dogs on the continent at this show. It is not a recommended venue for the owner handler. The pros are prolific. We chose to have Catherine McMillan show our Kylie, as Kate showed her for much of her USA points and is well known in the USA for her excellent presentation of quality dogs.

We took time to add on to the trip to see the city and the shows, though this was not easy, what with having the dog along who had to stay high up in the hotel room by herself. Manhattan is not a dog-friendly place: Parks prohibit dogs. Everything else is pavement.

Westminster is a bucket list trip that can be done much more easily without your dog, but if you have a competitive entry - Go For It! Our girl, who was shown sparingly in 2012/2013, went over the top bitch in the USA and made us very proud.
