NEW ARRIVALS

Barbara Watt reports that Can/Am Ch. Plawsworth Belle of Bon Accord (Bella) is pleased to announce the arrival on February 5 of four little Wire Fox Terriers, 2 males, 2 females. Sire is Am. Ch. Snowtaires Encore (Higgins).

Darwyn Welsh Terriers was very busy this fall and winter with new puppies! The first litter, out my 2009 Montgomery WB (Am Ch Darwyn's Heroic Endeavour), had 5 boys and 1 girl! One boy is getting ready for his first obedience trial, another boy is leaving shortly for a foreign show home and the girl is staying with Larisa & Michael (watch out for Venus in the future!). The second litter, born at the beginning of Dec/10, is one of the most exciting litters ever bred at Darwyn Welsh Terriers! The 3 boys & 2 girls, out of MBIS Am/Can Ch Sanherpinc Paisa and by BIS/BISS Am/Can Ch. Darwyn's Webslinger (Parker; WD, BOB Montgomery 2009), are 5 months old now and stunning! At least 4 of these will be in show rings around the world! And, in mid March, a half-sister to Paisa (litter sired by Monty - Ch. Darwyn Bruhil's Flying Circus), while only 5 weeks old, are all doing very well (4 girls and 1 boy!). I think we'll take a break this summer (and likely fall) to just enjoy our puppies, dogs and hit some shows - both US and Canada ... maybe even get a couple of puppies out into the ring!

NEW CHAMPIONS & TITLEHOLDERS

Tim Doxtater and Don Emslie report that Am/Can Ch. Annfield Turn Key, a Best of Opposite winner at the American Miniature Schnauzer Club Specialty at Montgomery County weekend in 2008, has also proven to be a great producer. "Keyanna", co-owned with Carla Nickerson of the USA was bred to Am Ch. BIS BISS Can Ch. Annfield Turn Turn Turn and produced a litter of four. Two from this litter have just recently completed their AKC Champion titles in grand style and a third, Annfield Master Key, has just recently landed his second Best In Show win in China.

Greg and Terry Brown (Killinbrae Scotties) have two new Canadian Champions. Rocky (Killinbrae's Beinn Ghlas) finished in December while still a junior puppy. Nikki (Killinbrae's Burnt Caramel) finished at the Mount Cheam show February 18 with a Group 4th and Best Puppy in Group. The puppies are out of Can/Am Ch. McVan's Some Kind of Wonderful (Ronni) and Am/Can Ch. Book Maker de Champernoune (Benny).

Eileen Tuulos and Onni had a wonderful time with many other Miniature Schnauzers at the Peach Cluster Agility trials April 14 - 17th in Perry, Georgia. Onni earned his Excellent A Standard title and two first place finishes as well as 4 qualifying runs and his Excellent B Jumpers with Weaves title.

Bruce Fraser announces that their Min. Schnauzer “Justin” won a major in Nashville on Saturday, March 12 to finish his US title with 4 major wins (all handled by his sire’s owner Catherine McMillan) in 4 states, starting in Puyallup, then Portland, Denver, and Nashville - lots of miles on this dog! Justin's brother, JJ, finished with Catherine last summer with all majors, including Breed over campaigned Specials and two Group placements.

SHOW WINS

The Auld Lang Syne shows Dec. 10-12 wrapped up the 2010 show year and drew entries of about 35 terriers. They were judged by Leslie Rogers (filling in for an indisposed Michelle Billings), Frank Sabella and Lee Anne Bateman. Larisa Hotchin’s Welsh, Can/Am Ch. Darwyn’s Webslinger, was the Group 2nd winner under Rogers and Bateman and Group 3rd under Sabella, with Rachel Adams’ new Border puppy, Brrams Swing Tyme Blues, taking Best Puppy in Group all three days and Group 4th under Sabella. The Wire, Barbara Watt’s Can/Am Ch. Plawsworth Belle Of Bon Accord, picked up a Group 4th under Rogers and the Norfolk, Ch. Max-Well’s Thunder Boom, owned by Kirsi & Milla Larjava, did the same under Bateman. Two puppy Specials finished off their puppy careers with Best of Breed over adult Specials under Bateman, the Norwich, Ch. Amblegreen’s Rickard’s Red, owned by Sandy Keller and Heather Tomlins, and the Scottie, Ch. Glenfraser’s Alexander of Gallica, owned by Barry Truax.

The 2011 show year in BC began with Ladies K.C. on Jan. 28-30 at Cloverdale. The Norwich, Ch. Amblegreen’s Rickard’s Red, owned by Sandy Keller and Heather Tomlins, won the Group under Letitia Bett, and Group 2nd under Brent Wright. Larisa Hotchin’s Welsh, Ch. Darwyn’s Bruhil’s Flying Circus, went Group 3rd under Wright and Bett, and Group 2nd under Karsten Kaemling who gave Group 4th to the Scottie, Ch. Glenfraser’s Alexander of Gallica, owned by Barry Truax.

Nancy Halford has some updates on her bred by AmStaff, Marauders Ruger Vaquero. At the AKC Puyallup Cluster the weekend of January 15 he was BOB and BBE Group 2 on Sunday for a 3 point major.

Larisa Hotchin reports that Joe (BISS/BIS GCh Am/Can Ch. Darwyn's I'm Not Arguing That) won BOB at a Welsh Terrier Club of America Specialty on Montgomery weekend, as well as Group 2nd at Devon (defeating 1000 terriers!). The other 3 days of Montgomery, Joe was awarded the Select Dog award (second only to his sire - BISS/BIS GCh Bayleigh Shaireab's Super Hero - aka Spyder with Jorge). In March, the Welsh Terrier Club of America held its floating National Specialty in conjunction with Louisville KC - and a bitch she bred (Emme, Darwyn Emerald at Sanherpinc - litter sister to Monty - Ch. Darwyn Bruhil's Flying Circus) made her ring debut and was awarded Best of Winners for a 5 point major!

Larisa is focussing on Canadian shows for the most part of 2011 (but, will support Montgomery again for sure), but the end of 2010 was extremely exciting - and successful! I won't go into all of the wins here - but Joe (BISS/BIS GCh Am/Can Ch. Darwyn's I'm Not Arguing That) was shown in the US for 8 months (went down as a class dog, but had 2 majors that were awarded breeder/owner handled). In that time period, Joe won the very tough terrier group in California 6 times, was awarded a group placement almost every weekend he was shown (including Montgomery and Eukanuba/AKC Invitational weekends), defeated the #2 Terrier in the US a number of times, defeated his sire (a MBIS/MBISS Welsh terrier) more times than he was defeated by him (including from the classes), and ended up as the #2 Welsh Terrier in the US for 2010 with about 4400 points.

The Mt. Cheam shows at Chilliwack Feb. 18-20 proved to be very successful for a number of club members. On Friday, the Min. Schnauzer, Ch. Repitition's Canadian Envoy, owned by Hollie Ben-Yosef, went Group 3rd under Jocelyn Gagne, who placed Greg & Terry Brown's Killinbrae's Burnt Caramel Group 4th and Best Puppy.

Then on Saturday, Barry Truax's 15-month old Scottie, Ch. Glenfraser's Alexander of Gallica, was the surprise winner of the Group under Philippine judge B. Natavidad. Group 2nd went to the Min. Schnauzer, Ch. Dreamaker Firepower, owned by Ken & Elaine Allen, and Group 3rd to Larisa Hotchin's Welsh, Ch. Darwyn Bruhil's Flying Circus.

Finally, on Sunday, the Welsh went Group 2nd under Schnauzer breeder judge Lynda Berar, with the Norwich, Ch. Amblegreen's Rickard's Red, owned by Sandy Keller and Heather Tomlins, going Group 3rd.

Ch. Darwyn Bruhil's Flying Circus

The next weekend Feb. 25-27 was the Lower Mainland Dog Fanciers' "Pot Of Gold" shows at Cloverdale which drew a good sized entry. Tom Alexander judged on Friday and gave Group 2nd and Best Puppy to Judy Gruzelier's Lakeland, Waterwalk Ikandy, and Group 3rd to the Norwich, Ch. Amblegreen's Rickard's Red. Best Brace in Group all 3 days, and Best Brace in Show on Friday went to Hollie Ben-Yosef's Min. Schnauzer pair, Envoy Foxy III Glamour Girl and Ch. Repitition's Canadian Envoy. On Sunday, the Norfolk, Ch. Maxwell's Thunder Boom, owned by Kirsi & Milla Larjava and B. Miller, went Group 4th under Marilyn Foulds, with Best Bred By in Group going to the Welsh, Ch. Darwyn Bruhil's Flying Circus.

March was a quiet show month in BC with only the small Oceanside K.C. shows in Maple Ridge. The Welsh, Ch. Darwyn Bruhil's Flying Circus, won the Group under Donna Cole and Edna St. Hilaire, and Group 3rd under Phyllis Wolfish. Cole's Group 2nd was the Min. Schnauzer, Ch. Repitition's Canadian Envoy, Group 3rd to Nancy Halford's Amstaff, Ch. Marauder's Ruger Vacquero, and Group 4th to Barry Truax's Scottie, Ch. Glenfraser's Alexander of Gallica, who went Group 3rd under Hilaire. The Norwich, Ch. Amblegreen's Rickard's Red, won the Group under Wolfish.

The Renaissance Dog Association shows in Chilliwack April 8-11 were quite the opposite kind of event, with large (60+) terrier entries and handlers and their dogs from across Canada appearing. The consistent winner was Larisa Hotchin's Welsh, Ch. Darwyn's I'm Not Arguing That, who won the group twice under John B Ross and Janine Dowell, going on to Reserve BIS under Cec Ringstrom who also gave him Group 2nd. Butch MacDonald placed him Group 4th. Ross & Dowell gave Best Puppy to Judy Gruzelier's Lakeland, Waterwalk Ikandy. Ross' Group 3rd choice was Hollie Ben-Yosef's Min. Schnauzer, Ch. Envoy Express II Knockout, and Ringstrom & MacDonald's Best Puppy was Krystal Mason's Minuteman Safety Last.

Many of us have probably forgotten the excitement of our first wins in the show ring, so here are two reports from Renaissance to remind us. Heather Lindberg reports that her new Scottie puppy, MacBrechin's Celtic Thunder, who is co-owned by her with Mike and Kim Salkus, picked up 4 points his first weekend out, which was a thrill for his new owners who were at a show for the first time. And new member Krystal Mason describes getting her first Champion Min. Schnauzer as follows: "Proudly introducing my very first show dog and first ever Canadian Champion, Minuteman Safety Last ("Sprite"), whom I co-own with his breeder Kate McMillan. What an incredible weekend Renaissance was for Sprite! He finished his Canadian Championship, under former Miniature Schnauzer Breeder, John Ross, and then went back-to-back Best Puppy in Group under judges Cec Ringstrom and Butch MacDonald. Thank you judges for recognizing this special young man!!! And thank you to Kate McMillan for breeding this stunning boy. Congratulations also to the other Terrier Breeders!"

We also have news about Darwyn Welsh Terriers in Obedience. Larisa writes, "I am bursting at the seams in pride at the news that I just received –an 8-year old dog I bred just received his first UTILITY DOG leg! His owner, in Alberta, Peggy McCallum, has clicker trained this dog to many achievements. His full name is Dylan: U-CDX Darwyn Hotspur CDX, RX, AgX, AgXJ, MADC, MJDC, AGDC, RL3. And, my Montgomery 2009 WB (Am Ch Darwyn's Heroic Endeavour) has just finished a basic obedience class and has started training in Agility! And, very exciting for me is that I have one, maybe two, brand new people to dogs (one that is a Radio Host) that may be trying their hand at conformation showing with Welsh Terriers co-owned with me. Please help me make it welcome for them!"

The Westminster Experience

A trip to New York City is always a treat but to be a part of the Westminster tradition is very special indeed. We chose to stay across the street from Madison Square Gardens at the Hotel Pennsylvania for convenience and its dog friendly atmosphere, knowing the accommodations would be basic, at best. To be in the hub of all things "doggie" was worth it. While Joey was not impressed with the indoor canine his and hers bathrooms he did enjoy meeting 2 and 4-legged friends everywhere-playing with Murphy the Rottweiler in the hotel lobby, sizing up the Newfies sprawled by the elevators, watching the Frenchies romp on the lobby sofas. Sunday was spent with family and friends and Monday afternoon we strolled through Times Square where the Manhattan pigeons kept Joey entertained. Monday and Tuesday evenings the Empire State Building was lit in Westminster colours and dog enthusiasts and media personnel were everywhere. Joey took it all in stride-his "groupies" called to him as we walked the streets; thousands visited, hugged and photographed him during his 12 hour benching stint and the media interviews and photo sessions were an exciting part of the show. Showing at "The Gardens" was everything I hoped it would be-an amazing experience we will forever treasure.

Al and Dianne Just and Joey the Norwich Terrier - aka Ch. Maralinga Just Joe Cool.

Cairn Terrier Judging at National Terrier (UK)

In April of this year I had the unforgettable experience of judging Cairn terriers at the National Terrier Show held in Stafford UK. For terrier enthusiasts this is the 'Mecca' of dog shows. I was delighted to receive an invitation to judge Cairn terriers at this prestigious show. As the date drew closer I alternated between excitement and nervousness. I have owned and bred Cairn terriers for 30 plus years but to be honoured with Judging in the 'Mother' country was somewhat scary. The total terrier entry was 1764 and I had the second largest entry. The Staffordshire Bull Terriers were the largest entry of 246. I am glad to say the minute I walked into the ring the nervousness left and I spent the next few hours totally absorbed in judging 96 Cairns.

The judging process is somewhat different in UK. After the judging of each class three placements are made. The first two placements remain in the ring for the judge to critique. Following the completion of the Dog classes the first place winners return to the ring for the determination of CC and Reserve CC. The process is then repeated for the bitch classes. The Best of Breed is chosen from the CC winning dog and bitch. After the completion of Best of Breed the Best puppy is chosen. I judged a total of nine classes for the dogs and nine for bitches. This meant I critiqued 36 of the 96 Cairn terriers. (I personally believe all Canadian specialties should be critiqued.)

I was pleased with the quality of the Cairns. They were not as groomed as we see in N. America but their jackets were of harsh texture and tidy. Heads were well furnished with broad skulls and good width between dark eyes. Most of the entries possessed large teeth and good bites but I did see a few with smaller teeth and level bites. Top lines and tail sets were good. I did not see any 'gay' tails. In general I found the majority of Cairns were balanced, with good medium length of leg and up on their well padded toes. Temperaments were very easy going. No fighting or snarling was noted. All were shown on a loose leash.

I was very pleased with Best of Breed CARRADINE NIGHT LISTENER AT HARKINLEIGH and CONUNDRUM SWEETER FOR ME FOR LENTRICA JW shCM Best Opposite Sex. They possessed the qualities necessary to function as vermin killers as well as self assured family dogs.

Judging at National Terrier was a great honour and will be a highlight of my judging experiences.
